

SAVING FACE

Saving Face, the Oscar winning Short documentary Movie for the year 2012
Directed by Daniel Junge & Sharmeen Obaid

The movie tells about Pakistani women who have been victims of acid attack by their spouses. The movie emphasizes mainly on two women, Mrs. Zakia & Mrs. Rukhsana who have suffered from inhumane attacks. The movie takes us through their lives and depicts how much they've suffered physically, emotionally and psychologically in addition to being neglected by society.

Plastic surgeon Dr. Mohammad Jawad was the person behind the smile of the victims. However, in the particular case of Mrs. Zakia, the doctor could only do so much because her face was in a more severe condition thus, the involvement and implementation of a prostheses was required.

Mr. Daril B. Atkins (Certified Clinical Anaplastologist) was brought to the picture to provide a better result with the support and sponsorship of Omniyati Prosthetics Arts Center to deliver Zakia a prostheses.

BEFORE

AFTER

Daril B. Atkins & Dr. Mohammad Jawad

Zakia and Rukhsana are not the only victims. There are several alike hiding behind the walls of misfortune and neglect in dire need of help and moral support.

